COMPLAINT LETTER

15

TO: The Chairperson

District Conflict Management Committee

Electoral Commission of Zambia

Chirundu District

REPUBLIC OF ZAMBIA
CHIRUNDU DISTRICT COUNCIL
01 JUL 2026
RECEIVED
P. O. BOX 30,
CHIRUNDU

FROM: Campaign Team

Hon. James Mwanja

Independent Candidate, Chirundu Constituency

0978513168

Date: 1st July 2026

Sir/Madam,

RE: COMPLAINT OF CAMPAIGN INTERFERENCE AND UNDUE INDUCEMENT DURING SCHEDULED ECZ CAMPAIGN PROGRAMME.

We wish to formally lodge a complaint regarding repeated interference with our ECZ-approved campaign activities by officers from the Ministry of Community Development and Social Services.

1. Incident 1: Sikoongo Ward – Mupululu Ground
   On 29th June 2026, at 16:00 hours during the conclusion of our campaign meeting.
   Incident:While our meeting was in progress, officers from Community Development assembled members of the public who had gathered for our meeting. The officers announced that they would give each attendee K5,000.00, which caused our attendees to leave our meeting and attend theirs.
2. Incident 2: Machavika Area, Njame Ward
   On 30th June 2026, at 16:00 hours.
   Incident: The same pattern occurred. As we were conducting our campaign meeting, Community Development officers convened a separate meeting at the same time and venue, and made monetary offers to members of the public.
3. Incident 3: is where our colleagues from UPND are just following us without following the ECZ campaign time table e.g in Mushungu,Sikoongo, Njame, Chirundu central and Musaya. They followed us and caused violence to our camp

Grounds for Complaint:

1. Breach of ECZ Campaign Timetable: We are operating strictly within the ECZ-approved campaign timetable. The actions above constitute deliberate disruption of our lawful campaign.

2. Suspected Undue Inducement: Offering K5, 000.00 to attendees during the campaign period contravenes the Electoral Process Act No. 35 of 2016, specifically provisions against voter inducement and electoral malpractices.

3. Selective Timing & Targeting: These "government programs" only commenced during our meetings, and specifically between 16:00–17:00 hours, not in the morning. If it is a genuine government program, we question why it is not being conducted independently of our campaign schedule and why it is following our team.

PRAYER/REQUEST:

We respectfully request that the Committee:

1. Investigate the conduct of the said officers.

2. Direct the Ministry of Community Development to cease holding meetings that coincide with our ECZ-allotted campaign times and venues.

3. Remind all public officers of their duty to remain neutral during the campaign period as required by law.

4. Take such other action as the Committee deems fit to ensure a free, fair, and peaceful campaign environment for all candidates.

We remain committed to a peaceful campaign and trust in the Committee's impartiality to uphold the integrity of the electoral process in Chirundu.

Yours faithfully,

Timothy Mwanja
Campaign Secretary
